24 CANDIDATES READY FOR CITY RACE

More Candidates Fill Councilmanic Ballot for Lemon Grove

More candidates for city council are listed this week. The Review makes no pretenses that the complete list has been carried. However, all candidates who made material available concerning themselves prior to the Tuesday noon deadline have been listed in the previous issue, or are listed herein.

The Review points out a fact most of the voters are already aware of: that the candidates are your friends and neighbors. It would be almost impossible to elect a poor council from among them.

The Review also urges that no matter for whom you vote, get into one of the 26 polling places and cast the vote . . . with the Review recommendation that you vote "yes" on the issue.

School Principal to Run for Council

Bob Sutton has been a resident of Lemon Grove for five years. He owns his home at 3851 Massachusetts. Sutton is employed by the Lemon Grove School District as principal of San Miguel School, a position he has held for three years.

Circulators of Bob Sutton's petition for councilman have stated they believe his interest in youth work and three years' experience with the City of San Diego Recreation Department will enable him to present intelligent city planning in the area of recreation and police protection.

Sutton, himself, stated that he was in the running to protect the interests of youth with regard to adequate street lighting, recreation, and police protection.

Sutton pointed out that close cooperation between the schools and the city government will be necessary to prevent a rapid rise in accidents due to children walking to and from school. Asphalt shoulders on such streets as San Miguel, Canton Drive, and Central, could easily save the lives of children in the area at much less cost than the installation of sidewalks and curbs.

BERT BETTS, CPA IN COUNCIL RACE

Bert A. Betts, certified public account, senior partner in the accounting firm of Betts and Munden, has filed to run as councilman of Lemon Grove.

Betts and his wife Sarah, and their five children live at 8145 Palm. They moved to Lemon Grove about five years ago. He was born in San Diego 31 years ago.

Betts is clerk of the school board and a member of the Municipal Accounting Committee of the San Diego Chapter of Certified Public Accountants. He is also a member of the State Committee which operates closely with the League of California Cities. The latter experience would serve him well as councilman, his friends believe.

Mrs. Betts is active in the L. G. Woman's Club Juniors and is Civil Defense Chairman for the County Juniors. She was also district chairman for the United Success Drive this year.

Mr. Betts is a member of the Citizen's Advisory Committee to the L. M.-L. G. and S. V. Irrigation District; Treasurer of the Lions Club, a member of the L. G. Men's Club; member of National Association of Cost Accountants, and the American Institute of Accountants.

His work in the above organizations has earned him the support of most of the groups with which he is associated.

CONVAIR MAN TO TAKE TRY AT COUNCIL SEAT

William Knowles, 8043 Darryl St., former accountant, is on the engineering staff at Convair and has lived in Lemon Grove for five years.

"There are many things this community must have to make it habitable for young families as well as the old codgers," Knowles said. "I guess it is natural for old folks who have their children raised to want a community with no rules to live by, no planning, no police protection, no nothing except to be left alone.

"I have four children, two of them in the school system. I own my own home and pay my taxes. I think we shoud incorporate so that I and all my counterparts can have a voice in our community instead of just the few who have had all the favors."

Knowles recently circulated a petition for sewers on Darryl St. and as a result work will soon be started on a sewer trunk to ease the sanitation problem on that street.

JOHN DAIL ENTERS COUNCIL RACE

John Dail, insurance counselor, announced that he has filed for city councilman of the proposed city of Lemon Grove. Dail, his wife, Louise, and their three daughters own their home located at 3240 Olive St., and have resided here since 1946. His daughters attend the Lemon Grove Elementary Schools.

The Review endorses John Dail for council.

Dail stated that after consideration of the requests of many residents here, he decided to join with the public-spirited citizens who are striving to bring to Lemon Grove those services to which the people are now entitled. Dail stated that in his opinion, many of these services could be obtained at no extra cost to the taxpayer.

The city council must create an economy for the people of Lemon Grove, said Dail, by being able to work and cooperate with our neighboring cities. The most important item is the creation of a consistent tax basis. His platform included an administration that will give to Lemon Grove the experienced representation for the consolidation of our many taxing districts which will ultimately reduce taxes.

"I have studied the possibilities of incorporation for over three years, and have believed local government should remain close the the people," said Dail. "Citizens are entitled to a direct approach to all the elected officials and departments of the city and if I am elected I pledge to maintain this type of government without malice or special favors toward any."

Dail has been active in many of the community projects in the past years and was one of the most active supporters for the unification of the Elementary School District. Louise Dail, his wife, is president of the Junior High P-TA and is active in the Swimming Pool Committee and other projects. They are members of the Lemon Grove Congregational Church.

Businessman Files For Council

Louis Glaser, who operates a radiator repair service at 7952 Broadway, has filed for the race of councilman.

Glaser has invested extensively in Lemon Grove business property since coming here several years ago.

He is a homeowner in Lemon Grove and has expanded his firm, the Lemon Grove Auto Radiator

Company twice since he started it.

"Fair representation is important on the council of a new city. I expect to give a businessman's experience in keeping down expenses and promoting efficiency and rejecting wasteful methods."

'BOB' GAULDIN, BUSINESSMAN, IN COUNCIL RACE

Robert "Bob" Gauldin, board member of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce, builder, and operator of a silk-screen sign manufacturing firm bearing his name, anpounced last week that he was going to run for Lemon Grove City Council.

Gauldin has been a resident of the county for 25 years and has resided in his own home at 7203 San Miguel for eight years.

Gauldin was one of the originators of the movement to incorporate and has been speaker at many of the public meetings held by Organizations United for Incorporation.

"Many persons who see incorporation as the answer to many of our current ailments do so because of my having convinced them of that fact. While I had not planned to run for any office, some of these persons have convinced me that it would not be fair to them to step out of the picture at this point.

"A newspaper editorial which pointed out this obligation also did much to convince me. If I am elected you may be certain that you'll get the best type of representation I can give. There are other good men running for council too. I know that the voters will be able to put together five persons capable of giving as good government as in any other incorporated city. Whether I am one of those five or not will not change the operation of the city . . . it will be a good city, well run because the men who are running are sincere men."

Gauldin is a member of the Lemon Grove Lions Club.

L. G. Listed Separately In Polio Drive

Lemon Grove will be credited with whatever local contributions are made, plus any that are made in Encanto, reported Henry Goldy, chairman of the local March of Dimes drive.

"The polio people have set Lemon Grove up on the graph and we will be able to follow our progress from week to week as soon as the drive gets under way," Goldy said.

Last year more than $5,000 was raised through a number of events spearheaded by the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club. This year all clubs and organizations will be asked to take a part in the campaign, Goldy said. Chan Mason was chairman of last year's drive.

The Lions Club has already taken on the task of distributing iron-lung shaped coin collectors. A task force took to the counrtyside last week and report them placed in strategic points throughout the local area.

Attorney V. J. Dorman and Dr. Don Johnson said that reception of the receptacles was very good. "We even met considerable enthusiasm for them among most of the business people," Dorman said.

The Kiwanis Club is expected to take on the Block of Dimes event and the balloon sales. Last year these accounted for several hundred dollars.

Other clubs and groups will be listed as they take on March of Dimes duties. A week-by-week schedule of receipts will be published in the Review as contributions come in.

Review Former Back Shop Man To Run For S. D. Mayor

Gerry Daugherty, until last week foreman of the Review back shop, announced this week that he had filed a petition of nomination seeking of the office of mayor of the city of San Diego.

Daugherty had been with the Review for two years and resigned to take on the duties of running for office. He is also planning to devote more time to a play he wrote which he hopes to have sponsored by historical groups of San Diego. The play is called Serafina and was produced in the interest of the local Cerebral Palsy Foundation fund last year.

Daughterty lives at 4260 Idaho St.

Roy Nielsen Enters Race For Water Board Seat

Roy Nielsen, 3850 Costa Bella, head of the Nielsen Investment Company at the same address, this week announced that he would make the run for the board of directors of the La Mesa, Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Irrigation District.

Nielsen has been active in civic affairs locally. He headed up a successful money-raising event several years ago called "Powway." This money was eventually handed over to the Youth Control Board and was used for equipment for youth activities.

He later was president of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce and more recently has been developing subdivisions.

"My experience in engineering will serve the taxpayers and water users in good stead," Nielsen pointed out. "I think a lot can be done to improve Lemon Grove's position in the water picture."

Nielsen last year was active in the Spring Valley sewer development. "Water and sewers are musts for the Lemon Grove area," he said. "We continue to invite people from all over the United States to live among us and do not prepare for their coming."

Nielsen has spent many months in the past years bellweathering for better roads in the Lemon Grove area. His announcement follows closely that of Robert Browne's which was made the week before. Browne, presently a chamber of commerce member, has also been active in civic matters. He has spearheaded many charitable drives and is an active member of the Lemon Grove Lions Club.

Also coming up for election is the office of assessor. This post will be filled from a resident within the entire irrigation district. The candidates listed above seek election from the Lemon Grove district only . . . and will represent Lemon Grove only if elected.

POLIO BALOONS TO BE SOLD SATURDAY

Lemon Grove's first polio event, the sale of March of Dimes ballons, will be held Saturday. Members of the Fire Department are handling the work conected with this important activity, according to Henry Goldy.

By MAX GOODWIN

Candidates were filing for office right down to the deadline Tuesday, reported George Wren, assistant registrar of voters. Petitions were being turned in as the clock, which Wren said he had checked with Western Union, was striking 12.

In all, 24 candidates filed petitions of nomination that would see five councilmen, a treasurer, and a clerk set in offices of the new city provided the issue gains the necessary votes Monday to form a sixth class city.

If the issue passes, the city would commence operating as such within a matter of days. There would be no noticeable difference at first, then as the council chose persons and firms to do the work, such services as the council might require would be done.

If the issue fails, it is likely that more districts will be formed. On requirements too small for districts, improvements will continue to be made under the 1911 Act.

Those who have filed for the council are:

Andrew "George" Lenox, auto salesman.
Dr. David Wilhite, physician.
Paul Hendricks, grocer.
Robert Sutton, school principal.
Roger S. Martin, electrician.
Ignatious Leone, salesman.
John Dail, insuranceman.
Forrest Baxter, contractor.
R. O. Gauldin, manufacturer.
C. F. Campbell, stock broker.
Louis J. Glaser, radiator repair business.
Jackson M. Ammons, realtor.
William E. Knowles, engineer.
Dr. Gilbert Chassey, physician.
Bert A. Betts, certified public accountant.
Ed. H. Carroll, manufacturer.
Robert F. Geitzen, salesman.

Councilmen named at the initial election will hold office until the next general election, that being in April, 1956. At the 1956 election the two councilmen receiving the highest number of votes will hold office for four years; the lower three will hold office for two.

For clerk the following have filed:
Marian Batchelder.
Stanley R. Blake.
Clifford M. Elkins.
Marg. Ellison.
Everett "Bud" Coffin.

For treasurer James Pearce and Elizabeth Frances Roberts are in the race.

Local political observers, and this included some level old heads in this field of endeavor, said that approximately 60% of the 5,300 registered voters in the area could be counted on to turn out. More or less would depend on the heat generated between now and Monday, and also the weather.

—o—

At least one candidate took the negative side of the election this week when he visited the Review office.

He said "Tell the people they can vote for me but still vote AGAINST incorporation."

The negative nominee will remain unnamed by the Review except to be identified as a candidate for council.

Local Government Pays Off!

Indication that local control pays dividends is the indication that Lemon Grove may soon enrates.

Currently the district has a rating of seven . . . the new lower rate will be based on six, thus joy another reduction in fire dropping below such old districts as El Cajon and La Mesa.

Eating and Drinking To Remain Normal For Election

Saloons, cafes, cocktail bars and retail liquor establishments will not be required to close for the January 10 election on incorporation, according to Charles Cameron Jr., liquor control chief for the State Board of Equalization.

Cameron said that general elections and school elections were the ones which required liquor establishments to be closed during election hours.

Locally, watering spas will continue as usual. Package goods stores also will be open normal hours. Brookside Liquor Store, which recently opened at the edge of the corporate city limits, will maintain normal operating hours, according to Don Tibbs, the shop's operator.

Henry Goldy, operator of Michael's said, that he would serve turkey dinner on election night. He has named the white meat "the winners." The other part is labeled "losers."

Ted Fetters, operator of Pal's, is featuring a champagne cocktail. "For the losers we put in an extra dash of bitters," he said.

O.U. for I Endorses Six

Organizations United for Incorporation Tuesday night endorsed the following men for city council:

John Dail, Bob Gauldin, Forrest Baxter, Bert Betts, Bob Geitzen and Bob Sutton.

Chamber Urges 'Yes' Vote on Incorporation

The L. G. Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night, at its initial meting under president Robert Swenson, re-endorsed Incorporation and urged all persons following the Chamber for guidance to vote "yes" on the issue Monday.

Having just returned from a week-end of duck hunting in Baja California, here we are and there you are and here's the column — somethin' you can't hardly get no more.

It has been our good fortune to become very friendly with a Mexican family which lives about 40 bmiles below Mexicali. The father speaks rather good English, but Mama Gomez and the six little Gomezes speak no English and Mama Mason, Papa Mason and the two little Masons speak no Spanish, but we're all making an effort to learn.

—ML—

Papa Gomez manages to eke out a bare living for his family by raising some cotton on 80 acres situated near the Colorado River. He owns one horse and one plow and a 1933 Ford pickup. They live in a house made mostly of cattail fronds, and arrowweed but the dirt floor and meagre furnishings are kept clean and tidy. The Gomez clan (the oldest youngster is 14) is a happy family and eternally grateful to their government for allowing them to homestead on this rather bleak and barren land, but as Papa Gomez says, "We are together as a family and we have a home which is our castle and we never want to move from here."

—ML—

We will write more of the Clan Gomez. They remind us so much of the stories we have read of the pioneers of the early west. Incidentally, if anyone has some little girl clothes, (from age two to ten) she doesn't need, we know our friends to the South could use them.

The Dimmer VIEW

by Max Goodwin

I think that many of my readers have joined me in mourning the passing of the post office as an aloof, capable and proud organization whose major mission was to deliver your mail with dignity and dispatch.

So burdened has that good office become with "junk mail," that unwanted, unloved, and sometimes senseless deluge of advertising material, that the mail we once considered legitimate, is often delayed by the very mass of this new day onslaught.

The postmaster general, in order to increase revenue, revised a section of the postal laws that permitted distribution of mail to every postal stop in any district of any post office by the simple expedient of addressing it to "postal patron" and designating the district. That is not bad in itself . . . but let's take a look at the end result.

First, your mail box is loaded with everything from offers to send books on birth control, to invitations to invest in uranium stocks in Canada. Maybe some postal patrons enjoy getting such mail. I don't. Last week 37 such pieces came to my address. Obviously, mail that I had been wanting and expecting had to be handled along with this "junk." Even if important mail came through on time I got the feeling that this unasked for and unwanted crud has delayed it to some degree.

Additionally, the boys in grey, our sleet-rain or storm postmen, must have a hell of a psychological obstacle to overcome. Most postal routes are figured on a basis of one stop for every four addresses. This "junk" mail forces a delivery at every local address. With a restricted personnel total, and a job to do, these loyal workers are forced into a "speed-up" program that would cause John Lewis to weep into his bushy brows. This is particularly repulsive because these postmen know the letters were neither solicited, and in most cases, unwanted.

The California Publishers' Association, the National Editorial Association and individual publishers, including the publisher of the Review, have been battling against the continuance of this inane regulation. Last week the Postmaster General announced that come March 31 the regulation would be rescinded . . . and junk mail would die an ignoble and unsorrowed death.

You'll then be able to again greet your postman as a man of neighborhood importance because when he makes his call on you, he'll have a message of some importance.

Dun & Bradstreet to List 150 Local Firms

Each January business concerns in all parts of the United States receive from Dun & Bradstreet requests for their annual financial statements. This year the number of requests going out nation-wide will exceed three million, with over 8,000 going to San Diego County businessmen, of which 150 are in Lemon Grove.

The San Diego County section of the current issue of the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book contains listings of 8,598 local names comprising manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers. It does not include some of the service and "professional" businesses, such as barber and beauty shops, real estate and stock brokers. Thus, the figure for businesses in San Diego County would actually be higher than the 8,598 quoted above.

During 1955, Dun & Bradstreet estimates they will be required to make about 90,000 changes in the state of California. These changes will result from adding the names of new businesses and deleting the names of those who have discontinued business. In addition, changes will occur in ownership of established businesses, in trade names and credit ratings.

Better than 95 per cent of all commercial transactions in the United States are made on credit terms and the buyer and the seller are brought together by means of credit information.

When the owner of a business or his accountant returns his financial statement to Dun & Bradstreet, the owner has taken the first step in establishing his responsibility as a seeker of credit.

The statement becomes a part of the credit report on his business along with a financial analysis, a description of what the business does and a record of how it pays its bills.

On the basis of the information in the report, a rating is assigned and the businessman is listed in the Dun & Bradstreet Refence Book. This makes it possible for his suppliers and insurance underwriters, who use the book, to look him up and in this way he is assisted in getting his good and insurance.

In other words, should an eastern manufacturer or wholesaler receive an order for merchandise from a merchant in Los Angeles County, the listing and the rating of the merchant can be checked in the Reference Book. It makes no difference where the seller is located. The listing of the Los Angeles County businessmen appears in every issue of the Refernce Book in the United States.

A Refernce Book contains the name of the business and the rating. The rating consists of two symbols. The first, a letter of the alphabet, indicates financial strength or capital. It is the difference between what the business owes and what it owns. The second symbol, a numeral, reflects a composite of financial stability and payment record.

SAN DIEGO MARINE RECRUIT DEPOT — Marine Capt. Thomas H. Galbraith, son of retired Navy Capt. and Mrs. William H. Galbraith of 7820 Montana Ave., Lemon Grove, and husband of the former Miss Eleanor Hansen of 1808 Alta Mira Dr., San Diego, reported for duty here at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot recently and has been assigned as the depot headquarters and service battalion's adjutant.

A 1948 graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., where he was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps, Capt. Galbraith served on Guam with the 1st Provisional Marine Brigade and the 5th Marine Regiment (Reinforced) from the summer of 1948 to February, 1950.

Upon returning to the United States, he served with the Recruit Depot's Weapons Training Battalion at Camp Matthews from May, 1950 to August, 1952.

Prior to reporting here for his second tour of duty, Capt. Galbraith served aboard the battleship, USS Missouri, for 17 months.

See the Car You Pass In Your Mirror Before Cutting in

"The practice of cutting-in, an accepted custom in dancing, is outlawed and despised in traffic," declared Captain H. W. Clodfelter, commanding officer of San Diego County California Highway Patrol unit.

The California vehicle code provides that a motorist overtaking another driver bound in the same direction shall pass on the left at a safe distance and shall not return to the right side until safely clear of the overtaken vehicle.

"A good practice when passing another vehicle is to remain in the passing lane until the car you have passed is visible in the rear view mirror. Then, in returning to the right hand lane, you are sure to have ample room to avoid difficulty," Captain Clodfelter advised.

For Real High Spot in L. G. Gardens Plant Hollyhocks for a Focal Point

Perennials continue to merit usage in the modern garden for the many splendid qualities they possess. Some indeed, such as hollyhocks possess singular virtures that are not found in any of the annuals. Where else in the bedding plant family is there another citizen with such lofty ambition as the high growing hollyhock? For a combination of height and length of bloom the hollyhock exeeds even such favorites as delphinium and larkspur. Hollyhocks also are possessed of great beauty, a fine variety of colors and longevity.

Hollyhock is definitely a tall growing plant. Also it grows rather wide and handsome in

HOLLYHOCK

Lemon Grove. Plant it with the idea that each individual plant will need a minimum of two feet in which to preen its luxuriant growth, and then more or less forget the whole affair. For that is the type of plant that hollyhock is—a carefree, do it yourself sort of plant that seems to thrive upon neglect and even abuse. Given an abundance of water, fertilizer and cultivation hollyhock will grow too strong and too rank for the average home garden; so the best procedure is to plant them and forget them. Here is the ideal plant to screen off a vacant lot, to hide an unpainted fence, to even make a temporary fence or to serve as a garden high light. For to tell the truth, hollyhock is one of the things in larger packages that is a welcome addition to the garden even though the cost is practically nil and the upkeep is piddling.

Present day forms of hollyhock are eye filling masterpieces of luscious beauty. Especially in the commonly available double forms, hollyhocks offer delicate beauty and additional benefits such as secondary use of the blooms as cut flowers and the fact that they will live over for additional years of bloom, it is small wonder that they have not become more popular than they currently seem to be. Possibly, the tendency to develop rust upon the leaf growth would be the one major black mark against this grand garden item. To guard against this rather pesky blight a few tips can be given. Cool weather plantings seem to be freer of this disease. Watering should be done by irrigation and the foliage should not be wet if possible. Plantings should always be done in the full sun. Should rust appear the plants will survive and give good color but little control is known other than to pull off the most infected leaves.

The double forms of hollyhock are generally sold as a mixture, but are occasionally available in straight colors. Of these the pink and yellow and salmon are sheer soft blobs of lovely beauty that serve amazingly well as cut blossoms for floating on the surface of vases and bowls. Used for two or three days they will stand up quite well and then should be replaced. Treated correctly, they will furnish endless bouquets for this type of container.

POLITICAL SATIRE TO BE OFFERED AT GLOBE

A witty satire on love and politics, set in Washington during the Truman administration, "Affairs of State" will open the New Year at the Old Globe Theatre. Starting on January 10 and playing every night but Sunday for a limited run, the show will feature an outstanding cast under the direction of Craig Noel.

Leading lady Charlotte Henry, who will be remembered for her career in motion pictures and on the professional stage, has appeared as principal in three Globe hits: "John Loves Mary," "Strange Bedfellows" and "Good bye, My Fancy." Leading man Robert Hartle, a graduate of famed Cleveland Playhouse, last winter was visible in a Channel 8 TV show, "Green Thumb." Globe Theatre favorites Jack Mosher and Eleanor Rose, last seen in the Community Theatre production "Lo and Behold," each carried off an Atlas Award for their roles in that comedy. Bill Nelson has done radio work at WWRL and WMGM in New York, in Bremerton, Wash., and as disc jockey aboard the USS Princeton, broadcasting to Task Force 77 during the Korean campaign.

These five fill the stellar roles in "Affairs of State," a smartly paced Louis Verneuil comedy relating what happens when the Hon. Dan Cupid drops a few bombs over the Capitol dome.

THE YELLOW LIGHT

In less than two generations, the California motorist has learned how to get along with red and green lights, but not yellow ones.

You stop at a red light unless you are driving a fire truck, a police car, or an ambulance. You start at a green light, or the impatient driver behind you will honk at you. The meaning of red and green lights is quite clear to most motorists.

But what do you do when the signal shows yellow? Do you step on it and race across the intersection? Or do you bear down on your brake and stop?

Whatever you do, try to stop if you can with safety. The yellow light gives you time enough to clear the intersection if you are already in it. That's the reason for the yellow light.

If you are walking, don't start across the street on a yellow signal.

A flashing yellow light is a warning: Be careful, you are coming to a danger spot. It may be a busy intersection, a pedestrian crossing, or a curve in the road.

You hear much talk about the pedestrian's right of way—or the motorist's. But note, no one has the right of way when his use of it is likely to cause an accident. Nor does having the right of way get you out of a hospital bed any sooner.

NOTE: The State Bar of California offers this column for your information so that you may know more about how to act under our laws.

MAYFAIR Strives To Please You -- Always

Mrs. Ruth Miller, shown with her 16-month-old son Mark, has a nice way of putting her reaction to Mayfair shopping. She says, simply, "Mayfair is the nicest market in town."

She did add another nice little remark that we rejoice in hearing: "They have the nicest help at Mayfair," she said . . . and we think so too.

Mrs. Rocky Brooks, 4434 48th St., San Diego, and her 18-month-old daughter Sandy, are frequent shoppers at Mayfair. "With me it's the parking that counts," Mrs. Brooks said. "It seems such a pleasant way to shop . . . a wide, easy to use parking area; a wonderful meat department, and a produce department that seems to have everything nicer and fresher than anywhere else."

Mrs. Brooks's husband operates the Brooks Warehouse Sale at 8125 Broadway.

M. H. McCrary is a well known local sign contractor who lives at 7546 Pacific Ave.

"You just cant' beat Mayfair for their prices," Mr. McCrary states emphatically. "There are other things we buy besides groceries and we save money on these items too."

In addition to Mayfair low prices, Mr. McCrary says nice things about the market's cleanliness and about the courtesy of the personnel.

One of the corners in the big Mayfair market houses a soda fountain, a department contrived to lend an additional touch of pleasure to a satisfying shopping tour.

Clyde Trease, head of the department, sums it up with the eye of a philosopher. Says he, "You can tell when people are happy. They talk happy and act happy when they stop at the soda fountain for a snack and a soda. Nearly everyone has some thing nice to say."

There's a lot of meaning in Clyde's observation . . . and a lot of happiness amongst Mayfair shoppers.

The things which please our patrons most are the things we want to do all the time..

Inevitably, the first on the list is prices. Then follows in cdlose order, quality, convenience and cleanliness. Then too, there's the appreciation of friendliness from personnel.

That's why we are always checking our patrons' reactions. We strive to offer all these things . . . and when you compliment us on them regularly, we know we are hitting our target.

MAIL BUSINESS RACKS NEW RECORD IN GROVE

Business of all types is booming in Lemon Grove, but especially the mail business.

According to Frenchy Faucher, Lemon Grove postmaster, 433,672 pieces of mail were handled in 1954. This was an increase of 68,346 over the preceding year.

Postal receipts in the form of stamps also increased. Sales were $101,457.22 in 1954, an increase of $15,641.30 over 1953. The increase amounted to 18.25%, according to the postoffice head man.

Report on New Buildings to Be Given to School Board

Reports on the building programs at San Miguel, Monterey Heights, and the junior high will be given at the January 10 meeting of the Lemon Grove School Board of Trustees, according to Byron Netzley, superintendent. At the same time the members will hear reports concerning the school maintenance program at the various plants throughout the district.

Consideration will be given to the continuing of mid-month board meetings which have been scheduled during the past half year. If it is felt that the amount of business to be considered warrants these extra meetings, they will probably be set for the fourth Monday of each month. Regular meetings are scheduled the second Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the Education Center on Lincoln and Kempf.

Other items on the agenda include approval of the publication of bids for a district business machine and a recruitment trip for the employment of new teachers. Approximately ten new teachers will be needed here next fall, along with possibly ten replacements. Contracts secured early insure Lemon Grove of well-qualified teachers, despite the nation-wide shortage. The sale of obsolete surplus school equipment will also be discussed. Parents and all other interested citizens of the community are encouraged to attend this and any other meetings of the board.

BURGLARY TEAM 'CACKS OUT' IN LEMON GROVE

Two heads are not always better than one, and James Dukes, 6847 Jamacha Rd., and Robert Gardner, 3939 Seventh Ave., San Diego, can prove it.

Gardner was picked up at a "drinking bar" last week following the arrest of Dukes after the team "knocked over" Pal's Cafe during the wee hours of the Christmas holidays. It was the first job they had attempted as a team.

Lemon Grove patrolman Hal Johnson apprehended Dukes but Gardner made a get away during the Pal's affair.

Sheriff Willard Rigley said that the pair had individually accounted for and confessed to 38 jobs. The box score shows Dukes ahead with 26 jobs vs. 12 for Gardner.

The newly formed team has already "copped a plea" and will be tried again in Superior Court on January 14.

Some Lemon Grove business men are paying up their back dues to Johnson's policing service following the apprehension of the two culprits.

Bank Issues Encouraging Report On Area Conditions

John Davis, president of the La Mesa-El Cajon Savings and Loan Company, this week issued one of the most encouraging reports ever issued.

In the report he points out that the firm's assets have jumped more than a million dollars in the past year.

The report is as follows:

During the past year our area east of San Diego has experienced a healthy development and this is reflected by our year end figures just published.

The increase in our total assets amounted to more than one million dollars, representing a jump of 18%. Our savings accounts increased more than 16% during the same period. Our conventional loans amounted to only 80% of savings accounts and total loans 88%, showing a healthy margin between funds loaned out and savings accounts on hand. It has always been the policy of this association to take care of the individual home-owner and our ability to serve the area in this respect is shown by the fact that more than 80% of all real estate loans are conventional dwelling loans.

Our cash and bond reserves are far in excess of all legal requirements.

Emergency Exists On L. G. Landmark

A minor emergency faces the scenic and landmark departments of Lemon Grove.

Someone has the key to the time clock on the Lemon in the plaza. When two electrical failures occurred last month, this threw the time clock out of kilter. At present the Lemon lights up a 4 a.m.

If anyone knows the whereabouts of the location of the key to the clock, please call patrolman Hal Johnson at the local sheriff's office, HO 6-6414.

SECOND SUCCESS DRIVE SUCCEEDS

More than a million and a third dollars was raised by more than 15,000 persons who served as volunteer workers for the Second Success Drive, it was announced this week.

The campaign was a success, the goal was achieved, as San Diego County Chairman George Scott said it would be.

A fact sheet released by the Success Drive headquarters reported five items. The Fact Sheet reads:

1. The Second United Success Drive IS a success. The area has raised $1,340,000, $53,000 more than last year, $593,000 more than two years ago. This is the largest amount of money ever raised in a single campaign in this community.

2. It is a success from the point of view of participation: more than 15,000 men and women served as volunteers to raise the money — 5,000 more than last year, five times as many as two years ago; nearly 185,000 people, including firms, gave this year—5,000 more than last year, twice as many as the year before.

3. It is a success from the point of view of consolidation of campaigns. The Coronado Community Chest joined the Success Drive this year as did three agencies that had been conducting separate campaigns in the community. True, some of the major separate campaigns have not yet joined. Their invitation to join still stands, and the likelihood of their coming in increases as participation and money raised increases. As it is, this single campaign now included 86 per cent of the private health and welfare causes which ask the whole community for money each year.

4. It is a success from the point of view of the services. There will be an estimated $1,056,228 available for allocation to the services for their 1955 operations. This is $143,000 more than last year, because some of the funds raised last year went to pay a debt incurred the year before to keep the services going.

5. It is a success because points 1, 2, 3 and 4 prove that last year was not a flash in the pan, that this community can unite in a common cause, that we are a united community in fact as well as in name.

'EDUCATION' TO BE THEME OF MT. HELIX COUNCIL

"Education" is the theme of the January 12 program of Mt. Helix Council when that group meets next Wednesday, at 9 a.m., at the La Mesa Education Center. P-TA units from elementary schools in the Lemon Grove and La Mesa-Spring Valley School Districts will be represented by officers, chairmen, and other interested members who will participate in group discussions of various phases of the program theme.

Mrs. Lilian Weber, Ninth District Director of Education, along with several chairman from her department, will be present to help lead discussions and act as group consultants.

According to Mrs. S. K. Solleder, council president, elections for nominating committees will be held during the business meeting scheduled just prior to noon adjournment. Hostess units for the morning are the Murray Manor, Fletcher Hills, and La Mesa Elementary units.

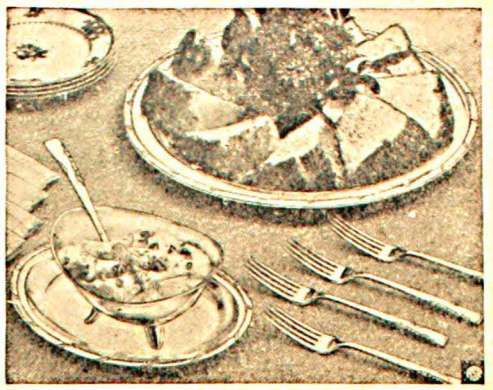
Angel Cake On A Silver Tray



You pay tribute to your guests when you offer refreshments on a silver tray. It is a traditional way of saying, "It is an honor to serve you."

Time was when silver platters were luxuries which few could afford but today it is different. The beautiful tray above is in the new Croydon pattern in 1881 (R) Rogers (R) by Oneida, Ltd., and the price is only $17.50. Here is elegance within the reach of all.

Angel cake with Coffee-Cream topping is a dessert which is as pretty to see as it is good to eat. Arrange wedges of the snowy cake in a ring on the lovely silver tray. Place a nosegay in the center. Serve the delicious topping in a handsome silver sauce bowl and allow the guests to serve themselves.

Coffee-Cream Topping—Whip one half pint of cream. Fold in three tablespoons of sugar, one half teaspoon of instant coffee and one fourth cup finely chopped pecans.

Review Ad Man Has New Grandson

A grandson was born to Oliver S. Turnbull, advertising manager of the Review, when his daughter, Mrs. W. L. "Butch" Thomas, 3215 Par Dr., had a 7 pound, 14 ounce boy on January 1.

The mother, Ann, is doing well at Mercy Hospital where the child was born. The couple has another boy, Ronnie, eight.

About two dozen other children were born before the Thomas youngster, thus denying him the distinction of being the first child born in 1955.

BRITISH PARLIAMENT MEMBER TO SPEAK IN SAN DIEGO

Speaking on "Challenge from Asia and Africa," Fenner Brockway, Labor member of the British Parliament, will be sponsored in a lecture, Monday, January 10 at 8 p.m. by the San Diego Committee for Peace and Social Concerns. The meeting, to be held at the First Methodist Church at Eighth and C Streets in San Diego, is open to the public, admission free.

A close friend of Gandhi, he was also a delegate to the Indian National Congress and the Indian Trade Union Congress. Mr. Brockway has long championed colonial peoples in their work toward freedom, especially in Africa. He has recently visited the Sudan, Tunisia, Uganda and Kenya, hypersensitive areas on that continent.

'Circle 8' Dancers Bring in New Year On Toes of Light Fantastic

Friday, members of Circle Eight and their guests welcomed in the New Year at the Spring Valley School.

The hall was decorated with a festoon of balloons, gala streamers and glittering stars. The ladies, too, added to the decorations as they were attired in their prettiest gowns and the men showed evidence that St. Nick had treated them well, as many shiny new boots and colorful shirts were noted.

The hall was decorated by Frank and Ann Foster, Ben and Val Bruner, Barbara McCarthy and LaBelle Fischl.

There were 17 squares enjoying the dancing to the tune of the Sunset Hoe-Downers. Jack Wiebe was master of ceremonies and was assisted in calling by Dottie Wiebe, Van Van de Walker, Dorothy Van de Walker, Sylvia Conkle, Carl Farrar, Pic Pickens and of course that old favorite George Yoshonis. These callers all are or have been members of Circle Eight and we were happy to have them spend this holiday with us renewing old friendships.

Just before midnight, noisemakers were distributed to dancers and at the stroke of 12 the New Year was joyously ushered in. After the traditional New Year greetings were over, ham sandwiches and coffee were served.

Levis and Laces Mark New Year's Night With Party

The regular Saturday night party dance held each month fell on New Year's night and proved to be a very enjoyable way of welcoming in the New Year. With Clarence Montgomery calling, members were hosts to 24 guest couples and turned out in large numbers to square dance.

Hosts for the party were Bernice and George Carlson, assisted by Charlie Bailey. Free coffee served all during the party turned out to be a popular innovation.

Audree and Philip Burch, moving soon to Arizona, were the very surprised recipients of a pair of ceramic square dancers and honorary membership cards from the club as a parting gift. Audree is at present the club's treasurer while Phil is the immediate past president.

Clarence Montgomery announces that the Beginners' Class recently started will be held open for two more weeks. The class meets at the Woman's Clubhouse at 2810 Main St. every Monday night at 8. At the present time there is room for more couples and all interested persons are urged to come and join the class.

The regular monthly board meeting was held at the home of the Harold Hattons at 6949 Central Ave. Harold is the club president.

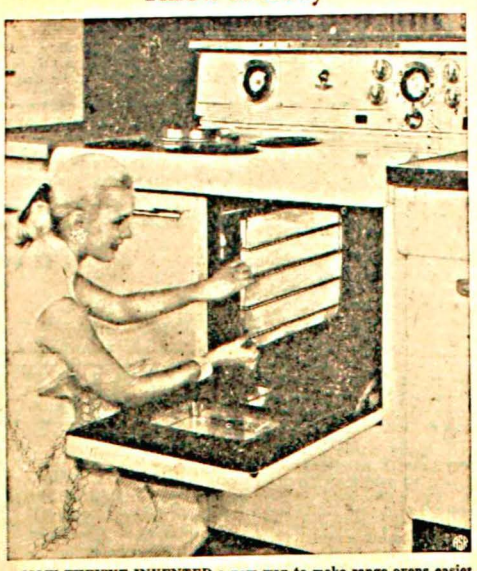
New members welcomed into the club during the month of December include Messrs. and Mmes. Leroy Cowley, Roy Wentzel, Hugh Prescott, Ray Moore, Tom McCreary, Wendell Watson, Frank Rosia, Terry Hitchcock, Mac McCoy, Vance Jaquith, Tom Best, Alex Antonette, Mac Swinney, Aldon Lindsley, Dick Hicks, Willis Carr, Miss Gloria Lindsley and Miss Evie Williams.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR MRS. TREGANZA TO BE HELD SUNDAY

Memorial services for Mrs. A. O. Treganza, recently deceased widow of Alberto Treganza, will be held at the 11 a.m. service at the Lemon Grove First Congregational Church this Sunday, January 9, 1955.

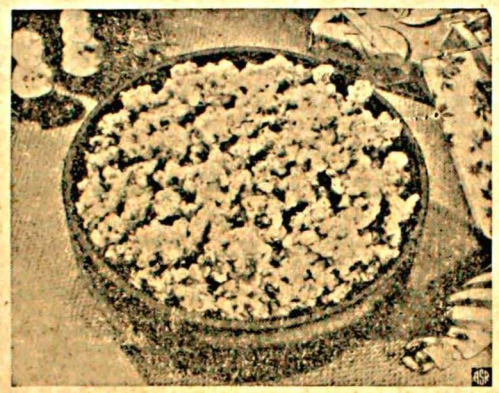
According to a note from Freeborn Cressy, middle age for women begins when dangerous curves become extended detours.

Throw It Away



NOW THEY'VE INVENTED a new way to make range ovens easier to clean, with the help of aluminum foil oven linings that you can simply throw away. Kelvinator engineers have designed special racks to hold the aluminum foil which are fitted to the oven sides. Instead of bending and scraping to clean the oven, the homemaker merely removes the side racks, disposes of the used foil, and replaces it with fresh, pre-cut sheets.

Caramel Flavors This Popcorn



Here's a popcorn treat that moves into the Yuletide picture as a crunchy snack the whole family will like! Each kernel is flavored with rich, luscious caramel. The ease of making this confection depends on a well-known packaged brand of caramels which melts readily, with a little water, into a smooth sauce.

It's a simple matter to make enough caramel popcorn crunch to serve a crowd. Set it out in a generous-sized container, like a wooden bowl, bucket, or woven basket so everyone can munch on it at will.

Caramel Popcorn Crunch

½ lb. packaged caramels (28 caramels)
2 tablespoons water 2 quarts popped corn, salted

Place the caramels and water in the top of a double boiler. Heat, stirring frequently, until the caramels are melted and the sauce is smooth. Pour over the popcorn and toss until every kernel is coated. Spread on a lightly greased cookie sheet and let stand until the surface is dry. Break apart and serve.

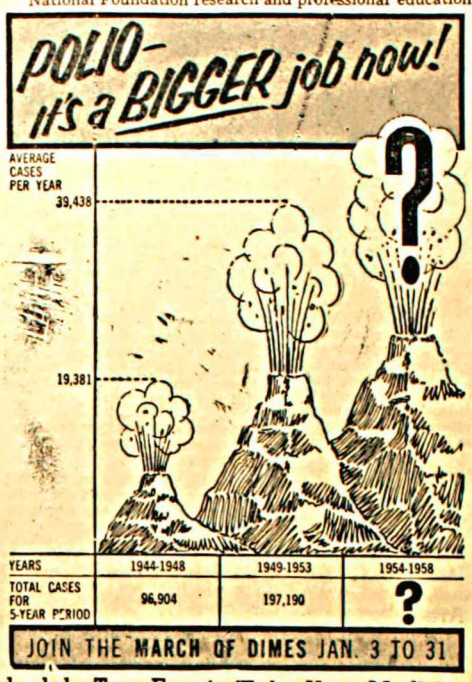
Dimes Goal: Rebuild Lives

Making new lives for polio victims is a major goal of the March of Dimes, now in the second week of its drive for $64,000,000 in polio-fighting funds, according to Dr. Hart E. Van Riper, medical director of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

"From the time a polio patient is first diagnosed, skilled hands and wise heads are at his bedside to save a life and return the patient to normal living," Dr. Van Riper said. "For this, most patients need financial aid from the March of Dimes."

National Foundation research and professional education programs constantly provide new knowledge and trained personnel, he explained. The eventual conquest of paralytic polio is the goal and much progress has been made, but polio still cripples, he said.



More Getting Rehabilitation

"New treatment techniques, involving physical therapy and orthopedic surgery, plus improved self-help devices can give mobility to many paralyzed arms and legs," he declared.

A survey of 34,377 polio patients admitted or re-admitted to hospitals in 1953 showed that 6,298 of them had come back for this purpose, he added. Reports of admissions and re-admissions to hospitals during the first nine months of 1954 list 5,577 patients in this category out of a total of 25,097 admissions—more than one out of five.

Parallel Efforts

Describing the goals of the National Foundation, Dr. Van Riper said: "While the prevention of polio is our final objective, provision of the best available care and treatment must parallel our efforts to control it.

"We must provide the ' of treatment that will polio patients to return t homes prepared and a take an active part in th of their community. You m say we must treat the whole person, not just the disease."

March of Dimes aid is essential, he declared. More dimes are vitally needed now to help thousands of polio patients realize their potentialities.

The campaign will continue until Jan. 31.

Schedule Two Events For St. Philip's

A family card party sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of St. Philip's church, Palm and Hardy Lane, will be held tonight at the Parish Hall, at 7:30 o'clock. This is the first of a series of evening card parties which have been planned by the auxiliary to provide entertainment for those members who cannot attend the afternoon affairs. There will be door prizes, table prizes and dessert and coffee will be served. Members and their friends are extended a cordial invitation to make up tables of their own coterie and enjoy the evening with the auxiliary members.

Dinner unique in its form will be held at St. Philip's Episcopal church recreation hall on Sunday evening, for the annual parish meeting. It will be a picnic supper or dinner, whichever the members desire. Each family will bring its own meal, its own table service and picnic in any part of the hall that suits its fancy. Coffee will be served by the Women's Auxiliary, which promises it will be real coffee and plenty of it, so that the men may have their customary second cup.

'IN LIEU' TAXES TOP $5 MILLION

SACRAMENTO — Robert C. Kirkwood, state controller, today announced the apportionment of $5,804,436 of Motor Vehicle License Fee ("In Lieu" Tax) revenue among cities and counties for the period June 1 through November 30, 1954.

$2,902,218 was distributed to California cities and like amount went to the counties of California, with San Diego County receiving $152,649.20, based on $0.27 per capita. La Mesa City received $5,771.94 and El Cajon got $4,913.82. Cities get $0.35 per capita.

The $5,804,436 represents Motor Vehicle License Fee revenue deposited in the state treasury after deducting $368,500 for semi-annual interest on three issues of state highway bonds, and $1,299-145 for one-half of the annual appropriation for the License Fee Division of the Department of Motor Vehicles.

The "In Lieu" tax is levied at the rate of $2.00 per hundred dollars of market value of each vehicle. It is an outgrowth of the personal property tax originally levied on motor vehicles by the counties and cities and subsequently levied by the state to achieve uniformity.

"PERFESSER DURANTE!" Showman Jimmy Durante, as noted for his weird pronunciations as for his nose, is now "Durante the Scholar." Young residents of Hanna Boys' Center, Sonoma haven for homeless boys, recently gave Schnozzola a scroll identifying him as Honorary Professor of English at the California "boys' town." The award cited his "distinguished contributions to the language in coining more new words than any other living American during many years of providing wholesome entertainment for young and old alike."

!THE SHOW'S THE THING!

Tonight through Saturday night the Grove theater presents two wonderful features for your entertainment. They are "Human Desire" and "Three Coins in the Fountain." "Human Desire" is adapted from Emile Zola's novel, "The Human Beast," and it's the story of human beings and their good and bad qualities, both physical and mental. The movie stars Glenn Ford, Gloria Grahame and Broderick Crawford. The co-feature, that features the hit-song of the same name, is "Three Coins in the Fountain," and stars Clifton Webb and Dot McGuire among the many top acting names. Both pictures are rated high! The main pic for the kids' matinee on Saturday is "Tarzan Triumphs."

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday will feature a fairly recent H'wood release that is top-notch in all respects. It is none other than "The Egyptian." The just-mentioned movie is a historical film of Egypt, that probably concerned our 68th grandparents 3300 years back, and has to do with Sinuhe, the Egyptian physician, who tries many ways of life before he finds that he doesn't care for anything but the love of mankind. He reaches this decision as a result of the wiles of three beautiful young women. It's a color spectacle that stars Gene Tierney, Edmund Purdom, Victor Mature, and a very large supporting cast. The companion picture is "Capt. Kidd and the Slave Girl" that stars Anthony Dexter and Eva Gabor. Two color cartoons are featured every day at the Grove theater.

Hollywood Headlines: Mary McCoy's recording of "I'm a Big Girl Now" (with up-to-date wordage), has hit a censorship snag. It won't re released until the offending line is jerked. . . . John Derek will play Joshua, the loyal lieutenant, in C. B. DeMille's "Ten Commandments." . . . Mr. Peepers, of TV fame, expects an offspring in the springtime. . . . Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy will soon film "From This Little Acorn." . . . The pocket version of "From Here to Eternity" sold over 2,375,000 copies, so far.—B. T.

I CORRESPOND WITH PRESIDENTS

By BOB TURNBULL

"I will not rest until all the communists have disappeared from my country," was in my estimation, the most stirring of all comments made in a letter to yours truly by Teniente Coronel Carlos Castillo Armas, Presidente de la Republica de Guatemala (president of the Republic of Guatemala.)

A couple of months ago I wrote a letter to Carlos Armas congratulating him for his God-supported, iron-nerved victory over the ruthless, dominating communist-controlled government. His reply was thus:

"I have given orders to my secretary to give to me any letters from my good anti-communist friends who live in the different parts of the world who are happy over my military liberation of Guatemala and the communists.

"For that reason I have your letter and I appreciate your concern over the situation of my country.

"I promise you that I will not rest until all the communists have disappeared from my country.

"My good friend, I want to sincerely thank you for your letter and I salute you and your friends; with that I sign my name." (Carlos Castillo Armas.)

It took a day or so to interpret his letter as it was written in his native tongue, with which I'm not too familiar. Equally interesting to his message was the envelope and letter itself. The bottom of the letter had the president's seal. The envelope had the seal of Guatemala which consists of a parrot, some holly, a scroll, two crossed bayonetted rifles and two crossed swords. The letter had poravion (air mail) stamped on it, a six cent stamp with porte oficial stamped on the stamp. The stamp itself was interesting, showing a native leaning against an idol-statue firing a bow and arrow. Written above the native was "Homenaje al Ejercito Nacional—de la Revolucion." Written below the native was correo aereo Guatemala. Also on the envelope was the official presidential letter stamp with the seal of Guatemala, in miniature, imbedded in the center with the wording "Libertad 15 de Septiembre, 1821" sketched on the scroll.

(Next week: A letter from the secretary to a president of a foreign country currently engaged in a hit-and-run battle with Red China.)

STATE SEEKING EXPERTS IN MENTAL CARE PROGRAM

California wants to hire several competent men and women who are experts in rehabilitating mental patients and fitting them to return to normal life.

Certain educational requirements also must be met.

The board has also scheduled an examination for recreation therapists. The jobs pay $325-$395. Major requirement is college training in recreation, recreation therapy or social group work.

Four other examinations were announced by the board. Assistant head group supervisor with a salary range of $376-$458, is open to women only; cannery foreman, at $341-$415; junior chemical testing engineer, $341-$395, and chief of institution maintenance I, $436-$530.

RADIO EQUIPMENT TO AID CALIFORNIA MOTORISTS THIS YEAR

SACRAMENTO—An augmented fleet of more than 650 radio-equipped vehicles will supply up-to-the-minute information on travel conditions along California state highways this winter, the Division of Highways announced today.

Since last winter, the division has equipped 50 additional autos and trucks with two-way FM radio in order to give improved coverage of road and weather conditions along state highways.

Each winter season the division publishes daily road bulletins of last-mintue information from the time that travel on major routes is affected by the first storms to the reopening of these routes in the spring.

The road condition information is reported via radio by state maintenance men patroling every mile of highway under their charge. The weather report is furnished by the U. S. Weather Bureau.

The first daily bulletin is normally assembled by 10 o'clock in the morning and ready for distribution to newspapers, wire services, radio stations, auto clubs, truckers, oil companies and other interested agencies or organizations for dissemination to the motoring public.

ONENESS AND ALLNESS OF GOD CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

"Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord." This declaration from Deuteronomy (6:4) is the Golden Text in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "God" in all Christian Science churches.

"From a material standpoint, 'Canst thou be searching find out God?' " questions Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." That spiritual discernment alone reveals God to His children and enables them to reflect His power and perfection is stressed by Mrs. Eddy when she writes, "Can matter recognize Mind? Can infinite Mind recognize matter? . . . Can the material senses, which receive no direct evidence of Spirit, give correct testimony as to spiritual life, truth, and love? The answer to all these questions must forever be in the negative. The physical senses can obtain no proof of God." (pp. 551, 284.)

Social Security Expands Coverage

Part II of a Series on Social Security

Social security has come to the ranch. Starting January 1, 1955, ranchers and additional ranch workers earn the same right to receive retirement payments, plus insurance protection for their families, as city workers have enjoyed for many years.

Ranch owners will qualify for social security benefits in the same way that self-employed businessmen did who came under the law for the first time in 1951. Ranchers or farmers will first pay the social security tax on 3% of their net income, if it amounts to at least $400, with their income tax return for 1955. This means that the first time they will have to report is between January 1 and April 15, 1956. When only two such consecutive reports have been made for the years 1955 and 1956, those who are 65 or older will be eligible for monthly payments. For those still under 65, more than two reports will be required before becoming insured. In case of death, at any age, monthly payments to surviving widow, children, or dependent parents would be made.

In the meantime, farmers should not delay in obtaining a social security number with their name on it. The post office has the application forms which can be mailed to the San Diego Social Security office at 1196 Broadway.

Also, beginning with 1955, every hired ranch worker who receives $100 in cash wages from one employer within a year will have 2% deducted from his wages, and his employer will match that with his 2 %contribution. Once a year, the employer will make a report to the Director of Internal Revenue, listing each ranch hand, his social security number, and wages. No hired hands would be listed whose wages were under $100.

The ranch worker will also soon qualify for social security payments, so they too should replace their lost social security card with a duplicate or obtain a number if they have never had one.

Neither the self - employed rancher nor the agricultural worker has any choice as to whether he comes under the law. Coverage is automatic as soon as the worker is paid $100 in cash in any year by one employer or the self-employed farmer has net earnings of $400 or more from his farming operations. The wages of Mexican nationals employed under a contract continue to be exempt from tax.

Now Hear This! . . . Beware! Not one of the "count the diamonds" contests has been found genuine. . . . I urge you future high school students not to go to school! Don't go, that is, if you canot or will not apply yourself properly and if you are developing poor work habits by remaining in school. Don't go if you're such a poor citizen that you interfere with the education of others. Don't go if your goal is to horse around and cause a general havoc in classrooms. Just remember the old saying, "You have to have an education to get anywhere nowadays," has never been truer. . . . Most women don't economize until they run out of money!

Read Mark 5:25-34

Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? (Mark 5:31.)

"Who touched me?" was Christ's question in the midst of the throng. How magnetic is the word touch!

During World War II, a busy housewife served as nurse's aide in one of the hospitals. At times she felt inadequate to the demands of the nurses. Yet one morning as she prayerfully bent to the task of massaging a patient, a smile rewarded her.

"You are a Christian," said the patient. "I know you are by the touch of your hands. I've been here many months; there is a difference in hands. Some are instruments of dutiful efficiency, others seem to radiate an indefinable warmth."

How weak we feel at times as we face the demands and pressures of life! Filled with His spirit, however, God can turn a touch, a look, a tone of a voice to reveal His love. Thereby He makes our service to our fellow men a sacrament rather than a duty.

Prayer

Dear heavenly Father, help us to think of ourselves as instruments for expressing Thy love. Attune and make sensitive our whole beings, that through us Thou mayest grant to others the love, the healing, and the compassion that Jesus would give. In His spirit we pray. Amen.

Thought for the Day

The word expects more than mere efficiency from a Christian; it expects Christlikeness.

Last Cruise for a Captured Sub

In one of the most heroic naval engagements of World War II, officers and men of Rear Admiral Dan Gallery's Task Force 22.3 boarded and captured Nazi submarine U-505. Fast action saved sub as it was about to sink. (Inset) Towed to Chicago from Portsmouth, N. H. Navy yards, sub was placed in floating drydock and beached at 57th Street and the Outer Drive in Chicago. Sub was rolled off to tracks on this temporary pier. Tracks extended from pier end to Outer Drive.

When breakers threatened to wash away cribbing supporting beached sub, International TD-24 crawler tractor was brought in, bladed sand into nine-foot-high protective dike.

Jacked up four and one-half feet above beach pier, sub was then rolled across Outer Drive to permanent exhibition site at the east wing of Chicago's Museum of Science and Industry. Actual capture of sub took less than 20 minutes. Moving it to final berth, a distance of 647 feet, took 40 days. (Inset) Present for dedication ceremonies were Rear Admiral Gallery and Commander Arthur Godfrey, USNR.

'IGGIE' LEONE EYES COUNCIL SEAT

When I. J. "Iggie" Leone tossed his hat in the ring for councilman he issued the following statement.

"We candidates for councilman realize the importance of the public responsibilities we are to accept if elected. I am very confident that Lemon Grove will incorporate. And that the councilmen, no doubt will have to devote many hours toward the making of this "Pleasant Valley of Dreams," Lemon Grove, a good place to live.

"My judgments have been fair, sincere, honest and capable. I have resided at 2891 Orange Pl. for 6½ years and own my home. I have five children and am very interested in the welfare of all children and their activities as well as the welfare of the taxpayers. I have always been active in civic affairs for the betterment of Lemon Grove. Your support would be greatly appreciated.

"As a salesman I contact a lot of people and they agree with me that a sincere, honest council is vital to a newly formed city. If I am elected I promise to give sincere, honest representation."

Marge Ellison to Try for City Clerk's Job

Margaret M. (Marge) Ellison, of 8104 Mt. Vernon St., filed this week for nomination papers for the office of City Clerk of Lemon Grove, should the voters next Monday turn in a majority vote for Incorporation.

Mrs. Ellison is a real estate broker here in the Grove, and has been a resident of San Diego County for 28 years, where she has many friends and business acquaintances. She is active in local affairs and has the utmost confidence in a booming future for Lemon Grove, especially as she owns several parcels of real estate in the area to be incorporated. She has a background of public stenographer and extensive business and office training. If the office of City Clerk is opened by the results of the election and Mrs. Ellison voted in, she pledges herself to handle her duties as efficiently and courteously as possible, being ever mindful of thrift and economy in administration, to the advantage of the taxpayers.

Coffin Casts for L. G. City Clerk

Everett S. "Bud" Coffin, candidate for City Clerk, first came to Lemon Grove in 1930, when he arrived from Poughkeepsie, N. Y., with his parents and brother and sisters. He lived in Lemon Grove while attending San Diego State College, from which he was graduated with honors in 1939.

Bud taught school in San Diego until he joined the U. S. Navy in December, 1941. He now holds the rank of lieutenant commander in the Naval Reserve. After his first tour of active duty he became an instructor in English at the University of Southern California. After three years at U.S.C. he went to do a year of graduate work for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy at the University of California at Los Angeles. He was recalled to active duty at the start of the Korean conflict.

Upon his latest release, Bud returned to Lemon Grove. That was in 1951. He married a Lemon Grove girl, Mary Ruth Kerfoot Cornelius. They became active in dramatics, particularly in the Heartland Players of Lemon Grove, of which Bud was later director. They now live in a new house at 8330 Alton Dr., with their six month old son, Mark, and Mary's two boys, Arthur and John Cornelius. Both boys attend Helix High school.

Bud is at present employed by Rohr Aircraft Corporation of Chula Vista as a statistician. He is active in the work of the Lemon Grove Congregational church, and in dramatics.

CANDY MAKER FILES AS COUNCILMAN

Ed. H. Carroll, 8062 Mt. Vernon, a Lemon Grove candy manufacturer, has announced his candidacy for council.

Carroll has lived in Lemon Grove for 13 years and has been in the candy manufacturing business for six years. He is a graduate of Grossmont and father of two children.

"If I am elected to the council I will try to get a square deal for the taxpayer," Carroll said.

REALTOR ENTERS RACE FOR COUNCIL

Jackson M. Ammons, a resident of Lemon Grove for the past nine years, has filed for council. He is a real estate broker and owns four properties in this area. He says he is very tax conscious.

"Lemon Grove is an area of individual home owners. These owners bear the brunt of the tax load in this district. It is imperative that we elect councilmen who are mindful of our high tax rate and who, as property owners know and feel this tax problem. Elect men who have the intestinal fortitude to turn thumbs down on any proposal or legislation that would raise our tax rate to a burdensome figure.

"I am opposed to the hiring of any engineering firm for the purpose of conducting a re-survey of this district with the intent to re-zone this community. I firmly believe that any re-zoning or new zoning of any area in this district should only be accomplished through the cooperation and approval of the property owners themselves. Any other procedure destroys the protection that every property owner is entitled to. I believe that if this community is incorporated, that a city manager with practical experience should be employed. I also believe that a good city manager with watchful supervision of alert and conscientious city council, can get more and greater returns from the tax dollar. Getting a full day's work from each and every public employee is an essential to the eficient and economical administration of any city or business.

"My pledge to you people of Lemon Grove, if you elect me to your city council, I will very zealously guard and protect the rights of property owners. I will render you efficient, honest and courageous service."

SECOND L. G. PHYSICIAN ENTERS COUNCIL RACE

Gilbert Chassy, M.D., established his office in Lemon Grove eight years ago. Prior to this he had served as an Army surgeon in the armed forces from 1941 to 1946. From the time he settled here with his family, he has watched closely the phenomenal growth of the community, and has witnessed the various growing pains which it has experienced. Dr. Chassy states that the real growing pains are yet to come and when they do there will be an awful lot of howling. He would like to get in on the case to see if he might be able to administer a few palliative pills and possibly a few cures.

Dr. Chassy built his own office and home here. He is familiar with the problems of a diversity of occupations and businesses, and he believes that the welfare of all is to be considered, not of just a few at the expense of the remainder. "I shall steadfastly cling to the sacred American principle that it is the individual that is important," he said. "His welfare is not to be sacrificed for the sake of vague and abstract entities such as organizations, societies, clubs or political parties, which may or may not be camouflages for hidden selfish motives of a few. I prefer to be old fashioned in believing that government should be of (all) the people, by (all) the people and for (all) the people."

Martin Sets Ambitious Council Race Plank

Electrician and small rancher Roger Martin of 2025 Skyline Dr. is another candidate for council. A home owner and resident here for seven years, he has a comprehensive platform.

Some of the things Martin favors are: adequate police protection; adequate building inspection for home owners; playgrounds for our children: immediate road repair following alteration or ditching for services or utilities; a positive and permanent stop to hot-rodders on Lemon Grove streets; better and more parking facilities; more stop, traffic and street signs, and a reduction in man made noises.

Martin says he will be open to sincere suggestion and criticism if he is elected. "If we incorporate I want to help make it work," he added.

Martin is a working member of the Monterey Heights First Baptist Church and has one child, a boy, in Helix High School.

BAXTER 'SOLD' ON INCORPORATION, RUNS FOR COUNCIL

C. Forrest Baxter, a sheet metal contractor who operates the Lemon Grove Sheet Metal Works, is one of the early "filers" for council.

Baxter has been active in practically every civic proposition in the community since he came here in 1946. He is past president of the L. G. Chamber of Commerce and past president of the Lions Club. He is a member of the executive board of the Grossmont Citizen's Advisory Council, and is listed in Who's Who of the West.

The Review endorses Forrest Baxter for council

Baxter said "I was one of those 'on the fence' about incorporation until I really studied the pros and cons of it. I am now thoroughly convinced that the only other alternative, annexation to San Diego, would be disastrous to us as an individual community.

"Some people say we can stay as we are but I honestly believe that progress will not allow that."

Marian Batchelder Files for City Clerk Job

Mrs. Marian S. Batchelder of 2242 Lawton Dr., Lemon Grove, has filed for the position of City Clerk of the proposed city of Lemon Grove.

Mrs. Batchelder has been a resident of San Diego County for the past 21 years and a homeowner in Lemon Grove for 14 years.

Mother of four children, Mrs. Batchelder has been an active worker in the elementary and high school Parent-Teacher Association, serving as a board member in several different capacities. For the past five years she has been in the employ of the Lemon Grove School District having been school secretary at the Monterey Heights School and now completing her third year as secretary in the San Miguel school.

The Review endorses Mrs. Batchelder for clerk

Actively interested in civic affairs for many years, Mrs. Batchelder has a comprehensive background and knowledge of the community problems. Some of the activities with which she has been associated are the Grossmont Hospital Association Auxiliary, Monterey Heights Civic Association, Civil Defense planning, the Forward Club, the school district's summer recreation program and Levis and Laces Square Dance Club. She is a member of the Congregational Church.

Mrs. Batchelder received business training at Ohio University where she graduated with a B. S. in Education. Living at home at the present time are a son, Stephen 18, twin daughters 10, while the elder son, Alan, 20, is serving with the U. S. Army in Bavaria. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Stanley, are also Lemon Grove residents and home owners.

With a wide acquaintanceship in the Lemon Grove area, it is felt that Mrs. Batchelder is well qualified for the job of city clerk and she has stated that she would be very willing and interested in working for the organization of good city government in Lemon Grove.

MEN'S CLUB TO RESUME MEETINGS

The Lemon Grove Men's Club will resume meetings Friday after a two week's vacation.

No program has been announced. All men interested in Lemon Grove business are invited to attend.

Meetings are held on Friday at Michael's.

'Red' Motley to Speak At S. D. C of C Annual Meeting

Arthur H. "Red" Motley, publisher of Parade magazine and a director of the United States Chamber of Commerce, will be the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the San Diego Chamber of Commerce, to be held Feb. 24 at the new El Cortez Hotel dining room.

In recent years Red Motley has become recognized as a salesman's salesman. Last year he was named one of "America's Twelve Master Salesmen" as well as being elected to the Hall of Fame in Distribution. During his term of office as chairman of the board of the National Sales Executives he headed, at the request of the government, the first team of sales experts who went abroad to explain American selling methods to foreign businessmen. The mission, which was privately financed, proved so successful that other teams have been sent to Europe each year since by the N.S.E.

Reservations are now being accepted for the dinner, attendance being limited to Chamber of Commerce members and their associates.

Cynthia Grey, S. F. "lovelorn" columnist — "Every wife should know the difference between conversation and chatter."

The Navy wages war on the teredo and linnora, marine organisms that eat up millions of dollars worth of dock pilings each year.

Dianne Foster, Hollywood actress — "All of us who act are slightly neurotic. You've got to be that way."
